SCRIBE

Pays tribute to great storytelling, and the ZEAL of being transported from the page into imagination.

Communication is the ligature that connects relationships worldwide and through the course of history, the one that strengthens bonds between humans and time.

A chronicler of mind and heart transforms her knowledge into a powerful story. The strength of this story touches us deeply and remains inside, ready to reappear whenever a stimulus awakens it.

A fascinating proposal of the latest trends in the market, SCRIBE presents four bold patterns with natural stone looks, suitable for lovers of enthusiasm and highest-standard designs. Surfaces to tell stories of your life, to encourage sharing those stories of life, many little pieces of everything and of nothing.
